Damages decision based on
stipulation; influenza vaccine;
Guillain-Barré syndrome

Diana L. Stadelnikas, Sarasota, FL, for petitioner.
Traci R. Patton, Washington, DC, for respondent.

MILLMAN, Special Master

DECISION AWARDING DAMAGES¹

On October 25, 2012, the parties filed the attached stipulation in which they agreed to settle this case and described the settlement terms. Petitioner alleges that he suffered from Guillain-Barré syndrome (“GBS”) that was caused in fact by his September 30, 2009, receipt of influenza vaccine. Respondent denies that petitioner’s GBS or any other injury or condition was caused in fact by influenza vaccine. Nonetheless, the parties agreed to resolve this matter informally.

The court finds the terms to be reasonable, hereby adopts the parties’ stipulation, and awards compensation in the amount and on the terms set forth therein.

Pursuant to the stipulation, the court awards:

a. a lump sum of $38,564.17, representing compensation for all damages, other than past medical expenses, that would be available under 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a). The award shall be in the form of a check made payable to petitioner;
