UNPUBLISHED DECISION<sup>1</sup>

On March 9, 2015, respondent filed a joint stipulation concerning the petition for compensation filed by ██████████ on September 4, 2014. In his petition, Mr. Wilcox alleged that the influenza (“flu”) vaccine, which is contained in the Vaccine Injury Table (the “Table”), 42 C.F.R. §100.3(a), and which he received on October 24, 2012, caused him to sustained a vaccine-related injury diagnosed as Guillain-Barré Syndrome (“GBS”) that was caused-in-fact by the flu vaccine. Petitioner further alleges that he experienced the residual effects of his injury for more than six months. Petitioner represents that there has been no prior award or settlement of a civil action for damages as a result of his condition.

<sup>1</sup> The E-Government Act of 2002, Pub. L. No. 107-347, 116 Stat. 2899, 2913 (Dec. 17, 2002), requires that the Court post this decision on its website. Pursuant to Vaccine Rule 18(b), the party has 14 days to file a motion proposing redaction of medical information or other information described in 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-12(d)(4). Any redactions ordered by the special master will appear in the document posted on the website.

Respondent denies that petitioner's alleged GBS and residual effects were caused-in-fact by the flu vaccine. Respondent further denies that the flu vaccine caused petitioner any other injury or his current condition.

Nevertheless, the parties agree to the joint stipulation, attached hereto as "Appendix A." The undersigned finds said stipulation reasonable and adopts it as the decision of the Court in awarding damages, on the terms set forth therein.

Damages awarded in that stipulation include:

A lump sum of $255,000.00 in the form of a check payable to petitioner, [REDACTED]. This amount represents compensation for all damages that would be available under 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a).

In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC, Appendix B, the clerk is directed to enter judgment in case 14-813V according to this decision and the attached stipulation.<sup>2</sup>

Any questions may be directed to my law clerk, Mary Holmes, at (202) 357-6360.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
