DECISION AWARDING DAMAGES¹

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On March 17, 2015, [Redacted] filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq., [the “Vaccine Act” or “Program”]. Petitioner alleges that she suffered “injuries resulting from adverse effects” of her August 28, 2012 Tdap vaccination, including a tendon tear, and left shoulder pain. Petition at 1, ¶¶ 3, 7. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit (“SPU”) of the Office of Special Masters.

On August 11, 2015, a ruling on entitlement was issued, finding petitioner entitled to compensation for a Shoulder Injury Related to Vaccine Administration (“SIRVA”). On January 7, 2016, respondent filed a proffer on award of compensation (“Proffer”) indicating petitioner should be awarded $82,438.44 in actual and projected pain and suffering and $2,561.56 in past unreimbursable expenses for a total award of $85,000.00. Proffer at 1. In the Proffer, respondent represented that petitioner agrees with the proffered award. Additionally, petitioner’s counsel filed a notice reiterating that petitioner accepts respondent’s proffer. (ECF 31). Based on the record as a whole, the undersigned finds that petitioner is entitled to an award as stated in the Proffer.

Pursuant to the terms stated in the attached Proffer, the undersigned awards petitioner $82,438.44 in actual and projected pain and suffering and $2,561.56 in past unreimbursable expenses for a lump sum payment of $85,000.00 in the form of a check payable to petitioner, [REDACTED] This amount represents compensation for all damages that would be available under § 300aa-15(a).

The clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment in accordance with this decision.² should be awarded no lost future earnings as provided under the Vaccine Act, 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a)(3)(A). Petitioner agrees.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

II. Form of the Award
